Scott J. Fuerst has a diverse legal real estate background which has evolved over the years into a broad based transactional commercial real estate practice from an early concentration in zoning, condominium and land use matters.

Mr. Fuerst has developed several sub-specialties within this commercial real estate practice including the representation of landlords and tenants in office building, shopping center and warehouse leasing, the acquisition, sale and financing of apartment complexes, office buildings, hotels, restaurants, retail centers and developable land, and negotiation of contracts with general contractors and architects. Financing vehicles utilized in the foregoing have included industrial development bonds, county and state housing authorities, municipalities, community redevelopment agencies, private partnerships, commercial and investment banks, insurance companies, mezzanine debt and Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

Mr. Fuerst regularly serves as Florida counsel for out of state based lenders and represents national retailers and investors in acquisition, leasing and development opportunities throughout Florida, especially with respect to issuing opinions of counsel, providing advice regarding deal structuring to minimize Florida mortgage taxes, issuing title insurance policies as an agent for most of the largest underwriters in the country and addressing various hurdles to closing including title, zoning, restrictive covenants and lien issues.
